JOEL FERRELL

Joel has contributed to DTC for over three decades as a director, choreographer, actor, and artistic leader, beginning in 1992 with A Christmas Carol. He served as Associate Artistic Director from 2011 to 2019, helming acclaimed productions like Cabaret and Frankenstein. Joel also led Casa Mañana in Fort Worth as Artistic Director from 1996 to 2001 and has worked with major theaters across the country. Now, as the Inaugural Director of the Sexton Institute for Musical Theatre at SMU, Joel continues to shape the next generation of artists.

DALLAS THEATER CENTER

Dallas Theater Center's Department of Public Works partners with community-based organizations, schools, and government to invite people of all ages to take theater classes, attend performances and events, and join in the creation of ambitious works of participatory theater. Funds raised from CENTERSTAGE support DTC's productions and our ongoing educational and community-focused programs.
